

Senate Resolution 91

By: Senators Butterworth of the 50th, Hill of the 32nd, Pearson of the 51st, Weber of the 40th, Mullis of the 53rd and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing January 28, 2009, as Capitol Tech Day; and for other purposes.

2 WHEREAS, Capitol Tech Day unites technology literate students, technology leaders, 3 providers, and supporters to exchange ideas and research, share information, and plan for 4 future technology literacy initiatives; and

5 WHEREAS, profound economic and technological advances in our society are rapidly 6 changing the structure and nature of the workplace, and by infusing technology into the 7 teaching and learning process, Georgia's students will be better prepared to enter today's 8 technologically advanced work force; and

9 WHEREAS, the skills and abilities learned through a technological education act as a 10 foundation for a strong work force that fosters productivity in business and industry and 11 pushes Georgia to the forefront of the global marketplace; and

12 WHEREAS, a technology integrated education allows for practical and meaningful 13 applications of basic skills such as reading, writing, science, and mathematics; and

14 WHEREAS, the ever-increasing cooperative efforts of educators, business, government, and 15 industry stimulate the growth and vitality of this state's economy and the economy of the 16 entire nation by preparing graduates for 21st century opportunities.

17 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
18 declare January 28, 2009, as Capitol Tech Day.

19 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 20 to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the public and members of the press.
